In all of me together in my own universe in the area of money we find and count and are grateful for the experience that our financial needs are met.

With peace and love we joyful note in the depths of our being and at every level of who we are each time our financial needs are met we are happy and grateful and we know and experience this accumulates a financial money vibration of quality and pleasure. With this vibration we attract all the best money experiences and knowledge into our life.

We have attracted and we continue to attract money and find money and draw in money and take in money and receive money and make more money that we need into our accounts with this our own signature positive money vibration this grateful, satisfied, happy money enjoying receiving energy is ours and it generates all the money we need and more.

We always have more more money than we spend. We count on this extra profitable money. We know this excess money is ours and good for us. We save this excess money and it makes us more money. We love our money and our money feelings we are grateful for all of our money experiences. We find this to be.

Passive income generating systems are ours. We set up passive income generating systems that are now bringing money into our accounts in satisfying amounts. We make more than enough passive income to satisfy our every need and buy whatever we want. We take our excess money and save it and invest in every growing amounts and accounts.

We have organized together with the support of all the best resources inside and outside of me an ever refining and improving financial system that constantly results in us having more money than we spend. We enjoy everything we buy and we enjoy spending. We find that we have excess money and we save it and invest it so that it grows more and more.

We can do our purpose knowing that our financial needs are met and we meet our financial needs legally and intelligently and lovingly. We meet and exceed our financial needs with joy and peace and love and there is always more money than we need in our accounts and we manage this and have this managed so that it grows and accumulates at a rate and percentage that increases our money in the way that is most in harmony with our highest good and the fulfillment of all of our heart's desires.

In my own universe in the area of money.
