

internalized makes all your work with the Life Transformation Formula protected by Divine Love and in harmony with all the best for you.

I recommend that you memorize this affirmation as soon as you can.

The first exercise you learn in the Life Transformation Formula is the win list. Do the win list everyday that is the only required thing to do every day to maintain presence with the Life Transformation method.

When you finish the home study workshop which is presented in the Life Transformation Formula e-book you never need to go back and do it again except for continuing a daily win list. You can do any exercise whenever you want to or need to however there is something better once you went through that process.

Now you can move on to experience using the method you learned in the e-book by applying it to real life. The workbook is the best way for you to experience pulling all that you gained and accomplished in the home study workshop together in interactive software called the Life Transformation Workbook. Use the Workbook as often as you feel comfortable to do so, while continuing to do the win list each day. This is the way to experience results upon results building over the years from your own work with your own mind and your skill forming and focusing your thoughts.

The Life Transformation Workbook is your tool for forming and focusing your thoughts both in the universe and in your own universe in a way that is supported by the vast power of your own mind. This way your mind supports your efforts rather than constantly sabotaging you. This will all make more sense once you have completed the Life Transformation Formula e-book, home study workshop. Then all you need is the Workbook and the Invocative Affirmation and you can do it. You can imagine what you want your life to be like and enjoy the experience of having that manifest for you enough to make you very satisfied for your investment of time and effort in doing this work. Very satisfied.

To further support your efforts to work with your mind harmoniously and use thoughts to better your life there are several special audio files that are included in the Life Transformation System Z materials. It is true that the entire core method is contained in the Workbook and the Formula and you need nothing else except to make sure all that you do is in harmony with your highest good and some Divine source. Although all can be obtained with the knowledge you put into practice gained by the e-book and workbook your process and experience of manifesting the life you want can be enhanced greatly by these audio programs that you cannot get anywhere else. In fact there is nothing like the Life Transformation audio file.

Get this and listen to it and you will appreciate the uniqueness of the words, and the unique and yet fundamental mental structures they build for you in areas that greatly assist you to form the root of a good life.

Additionally, the new Money and Health audio files address the vitally important needs that their titles indicate, with complex and precise scripting to assist you to produce the result of a good financial life and a healthy body. Use the Life Transformation audio file, and the Money and Health subliminal audio files as supplemental assistance to build your experience of a good life from the inside out. All that we are arises from our thought.

The Destiny Reports one could say are supplemental and yet I must admit that without the Destiny information that I have received in the past four years I do not think that the full value of the Life Transformation materials would have been released for me. To put it another way it is the Invocative Affirmation that I started with and that led me to the Life Destiny Reports. The destiny system is like having a map of what your soul intended for you in this lifetime. In having this extremely critical accounting of the most important and substantial good and bad issues in your life you get can understand how to push your strengths and handle your weaknesses consciously. Your own consciousness about your soul level predispositions allows your tremendous freedom to navigate your life path without constantly bumping into your own limitations or unknowingly missing out on fully developing and expressing your talents and gifts. The Destiny Reports and Analysis gives you a tremendous edge in shaping your life into the one that you consciously imagine is best for you, when used alone and especially in conjunction with the guidance and self direction that you give your self by using the Life Transformation method.

I built the Destiny Report into the Life Transformation System Z because I feel it makes your overall results more complete and you can time them and work with yourself in reality more precisely. Use the Destiny Report information as much as you can. Start with a Life Report and then move on to get the Ten Relationships Report. Finally keep in touch with each 52 day period in your life from now on with your Yearly Report.

There you have the complete system. You are your own best teacher. This system provides you with the application and summary of the core principles of how to use your own thoughts to manifest everything you want in life.

You do not have to believe in this you just do the exercises in the Life Transformation Formula and use the Workbook after that while you keep up with the win list. Use the other supportive tools and you feel inclined, or not. Doing the Life Transformation method you will experience. And in your own experience you will believe in magic again, the magic of being who you are living a good life in this world.

You can make magic with your mind . We all can do it. The Life Transformation System Z helps insure that you actually do and enjoy it in real life.

Over the 20 years that I developed these products and my presentation of them I have had the opportunity to coach many people personally. The results that a person gets on their own with this system are amazing. Just read the word for word testimonials of those people that have done this before you. It seems to me that despite my strong belief that your inner teacher is all you need I do see that the results that can be obtained through the assistance of a coach can be even more fast to arrive, more fun, and bigger.

The ultimate Life Transformation System Z package that includes personal coaching is called the Diamond Sessions and these are directed and managed by Gabrielle Gerard of SoulTalkCoaching.com. If you want a refined and sophisticated high quality support and guidance while going through the materials, including a private ClearTalk

*Here are some inspirational quotes for you about mind and using thought:
(special thanks to Thomas Allen for putting most of these together and sharing them with me.)*

"Little does humanity realize the power that lies behind human mind because mind manifests through physical form, something we can see and understand; yet everything we do stems from the impulse of mind working in conjunction with the brain cells and the body. It is amazing how so many people confuse the mind with the brain, not realizing that the brain is a physical thing that receives the impulses from the mind and translates them into a physical reality through the senses and the nervous system. The universal impulses come through the solar mind and find finite expression through the brain."

Alfred J. Parker

"...if there is intense study of how MIND is indeed the builder, it will see that what is held in the act of mental vision becomes reality in the material experience."

Two qualities inherent in consciousness are attention and intention. Attention energises, and intention transforms.

The past, present and future are all properties of consciousness.

The past is recollection, memory; the future is anticipation; the present is awareness. Therefore time is the movement of thought.
